

*"Everyone can be great,
because anybody can serve...
You only need a heart full of grace...
A soul generated by love...."*

MLK FAMILY SERVICE DAY

Monday, January 16, 2012

Please Join Us!

To celebrate the legacy of MLK Jr and his teachings of community service, Youth Community Service along with City of Palo Alto, The Y, Canopy, Break Through The Static, and other partners, will be hosting a MLK Family Service Day in Lytton Plaza. There will be various service project activity tables, live music, and an open mic featuring community artists.

Event Details:

When: January 16, 2012

Where: Lytton Plaza
Emerson Street at University Ave.
Palo Alto, CA 94306

Time: 11am-3pm

You can also sign-up to serve with your family at the Jewish Community Center's Mitzvah Day! For more information about available projects and time please visit: www.paloaltojcc.org/mitzvah

If you have any questions or would like more information about this event, please feel free to e-mail Alicia Gregory at Alicia@youthcommunityservice.org

